

FBD Conference Registration Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. What is FBD and Why Do I Have to Pay Them a Registration Fee?

FBD provides educational sessions for its attendees, but it also serves as the conference ‘organizer’. The FBD registration fee is used to cover general conference costs such as exhibit hall activities, registration processing, credit card fees, etc. Association registration fees would be higher if FBD did not provide these activities for the associations.

2. Is Online Registration or On-site Registration available after the ‘Early’ Registration Deadline?

Yes. Online registration re-opens approximately one week after early online registration closes. You may also register on-site at the conference beginning at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday of the conference. Registration is located inside the Exhibit Hall. Fees are higher after the early registration deadline passes. FBD registration fees are $25 higher for late and on-site registration; association registration fees may also be higher.

3. When is the registration deadline to avoid higher registration fees?

Mail-in registrations are only accepted for early registrations. Mail-in registrations must be postmarked by February 17, 2020. Online early registration will open on/about December 1st. Online early registration will close at 5:00 p.m. CST on February 24th, 2020.

4. What is the cancellation/refund policy?

Refunds for cancellation of registration are granted only for extenuating circumstances. Registered attendees will receive a 100% refund of their FBD and association registration fee(s) if the request for registration cancellation is received and approved by the FBD Secretary/Treasurer at least ten (10) days prior to the start of the conference. Requests for cancellation within ten days of conference start will not be approved and fees will not be refunded. There are NO exceptions (e.g., medical issues, death in the family, automobile accident, flight delays, etc.) to the ten day time limit. Requests for refunds must be made in writing directly to the FBD Secretary/Treasurer.

5. What if I am both a graduate student and a faculty member?

As long as you are currently enrolled full-time in a graduate program, even if you are also a full-time faculty member, you may register as a student member.

6. What is the FBD Awards Banquet and Reception and am I required to attend?

The Awards Reception and Banquet is held on Wednesday evening of the conference. Each association recognizes a Distinguished Paper and an Outstanding Educator at this banquet. Selection for one of these awards is quite an honor. Award winners are invited to the reception and banquet on a complimentary basis and provided with a small token of recognition. No cash awards are given at this event. Other association and FBD officers are also recognized for their service at this class event. You are only required to attend if you were selected for one of the Distinguished Paper or Outstanding Educator awards.

7. Who qualifies as a Guest for the Guest Pass?

Because the FBD conference is often held in family-friendly, well-desired locations, conference attendees often bring a family member or friend with them to the conference. These individuals may be a spouse, child, significant other, friend, etc. You may purchase a guest pass for this individual for $30. The guest pass allows the guest to attend FBD general events (e.g., coffee breaks, Presidential Welcome Reception) held in the Exhibit Hall. The guest pass allows for entry ONLY into the Exhibit Hall. An individual with a guest pass may NOT attend any association sessions, meetings, breakfasts/luncheons, etc. Any one over the age of six (6) must have a guest pass to enter the Exhibit Hall. Guest Passes are only available to a guest of a registered conference attendee. The guest must not be affiliated with any higher education institution in an academic position.

8. What events can I participate in as a registered member of FBD?

As a registered member of FBD, you can attend any Exhibit Hall events. You can also attend all general sessions, meetings, and food & beverage events (except those designated for officers only) of the association(s) that you are registered for. One of the great features of this interdisciplinary conference is that your conference registration also entitles you to attend any technical/paper/panel session of any association. However, you cannot attend any business meeting or food & beverage event of an association unless you are registered for that association.

9. Which association(s) do I need to register for?

You MUST register for any association in which you are listed in the program of that association. This includes participation as a paper presenter, panelist, moderator/discussant, guest speaker, poster presenter, etc. If you have papers/participation in multiple associations, you must register for multiple associations. However, you must only pay the FBD registration fee once.

10. Can I attend other meetings in the conference if I am not registered for that part of the conference?

One of the great features of this interdisciplinary conference is that your conference registration also entitles you to attend any technical/paper/panel session of any association. However, you cannot attend any business meeting or food & beverage event of an association unless you are registered for that association.

11. Can I pay by mail?

Yes. But, payments by mail can only be made for early registration and must be postmarked by February 17th, 2020. If you must pay by check or do not want to pay online and you have missed the postmark deadline, you can pay by check while on-site at the conference.

12. Can I register online?

Yes. You can register online at www.fbdonline.org. Online registration for early registration will open on/about December 1st. Early registration will end at 5:00 p.m. on February 24th, 2020. Late registration will re-open on the website about a week after early registration closes.

13. How will the online registration show up on my credit card statement?

Your registration payment will show up on your credit card statement as "FED OF BUS DISCIPL - CHARITIES".

14. Can I register on-site?

Yes. On-site registration opens at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, March 11th, in the Exhibit Hall. Registration Hours are 11:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 11th; 7:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 12th; and 7:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. on Friday, March 13th. Saturday registration hours are based on need. FBD registration fees are $25 higher for late and on-site registration; association registration fees may also be higher.

15. How do I register online?

Go to www.fbdonline.org. Set up an account if you do not have one, or log in with your credentials if you have attended FBD before. Click on the Conference Center tab at the top of the web page and then click on the Registration Home link. Or, you can go to directly to the registration home page by going to www.fbdonline.org/registration.

16. What do I do if I am having trouble setting up an account?

For the most part, individuals do not have trouble with our website registration. But, it is frustrating when they do. Often, the issue is due to university spam and security settings that won't allow our system to communicate with the university system. Do NOT get frustrated before you ask for help. Send an email to support@fbdonline.org, our Secretary/Treasurer at kwebb.fbd@gmail.com, or to our Executive Director at mceacharn@ulm.edu. We can help you resolve the issue and get you on the way to registering. However, please note that deadlines will NOT be extended because of such website issues. Make sure to register early so that you have time to resolve issues in case you experience them.

17. What if I'm having trouble setting up an acceptable password?

Note that your FBD login password must be at least 8 characters in length, contain both an upper case and lower case letter, and include at least one number and one special character ($, #, &, !, etc.). Contact us at support@fbdonline.org, kwebb.fbd@gmail.com, or mceacharn@ulm.edu if you have trouble after trying a password that meets these criteria.

18. How do I get a copy of my conference registration receipt?

A receipt will be emailed to you when you register. However, sometimes university spam filters block the receipt from your email account. You can always download your receipt, or another copy of your receipt. Log in to www.fbdonline.org. Go to My Account, located in the upper right hand corner of the web page. Click on View Orders and you can download a duplicate receipt from that page.

19. Can I attend the FBD Awards Reception and Banquet if I did not win one of the Distinguished Paper or Outstanding Educator awards?

Yes. One of the optional fees you can select is for the reception and banquet. The cost is $50, which is highly subsidized by FBD. This is a professional, elegant affair. Business attire is expected. The reception begins at 6:30 p.m. The banquet begins at 7:30 p.m. The event is held on the Wednesday evening of the conference. However, do not pay for this event unless you know you can attend. The fee is nonrefundable and cannot be transferred to any other individual.

20. What if I need special accommodations?

Anyone who requires a special accommodation for a specific disability should contact the conference hotel at least one week prior to the conference. You should also communicate this need to the FBD General Program Chair, Peggy Lane, at plane@ulm.edu.

21. I am an international attendee and the registration won't accept my payment because my zip code isn't valid. What do I need to do?

Enter 99999 as your zip code. The registration should work. If you continue to have problems with registering, contact FBD Secretary/Treasurer Kim Webb at kwebb.fbd@gmail.com.
