

FEDERATION OF BUSINESS DISCIPLINES · ANNUAL MEETING

CALL FOR POSTERS

March 10–13, 2027

Renaissance Dallas Richardson Hotel · Richardson, Texas

You are invited to submit a poster for the 2027 FBD Annual Meeting. Poster sessions are among the most engaging conference events — an ideal venue to share work, spark conversation, and connect with colleagues across disciplines.

And the setting could hardly be better. Dallas anchors the nation's fourth-largest metro area — a vibrant destination that pairs future-facing innovation with rich cultural heritage, a thriving arts scene, iconic sports, standout dining, and warm Texas hospitality.

Submission Guidelines

- 1 What to submit — a title page and a 250-word abstract. Do not include author names; posters are reviewed blind. The finished poster is not required at submission.
- 2 Select your association — choose the FBD member association (listed below) most closely related to your poster's topic.
- 3 Original work only — it must be original, not presented elsewhere, and not a summary of a previously published paper.
- 4 Present in person — at least one author of each accepted poster must register for the conference and present it on-site.
- 5 Poster size — if accepted, prepare a poster up to 36" in height and 48" in width.

Submit by December 15, 2026, to powellja@nsula.edu

Upon acceptance, at least one author must register for FBD and the appropriate member association and present it in person.

FBD Member Associations

When you submit, select the one association that best fits your work:

- American Accounting Researchers & Educators (AARE)
- Association for Business Communication, SW U.S. (ABC)
- Association of Business Information Systems (ABIS)
- Association of Collegiate Marketing Educators (ACME)
- Decision Sciences Institute, Southwest Region (SWDSI)
- Southwest Academy of Management (SWAM)
- Southwestern Society of Economists (SSE)
